

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott

The council at Jerusalem. Acts xv: 1-35. Golden Text—We believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they. Acts xv: 11. Verses 1-5—Are good men liable to hold wrong opinions?

When good men differ in opinion, what is the better way in order to reach an understanding?

When a professed Christian gets angry with another Christian, on a mere matter of opinion, has he or not backslidden from the love of God, and what spirit does it show? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Circumcision no doubt originated from supposed purposes of health and physical cleanliness, and afterwards became a national institution of the Jews. State when God first made circumcision the sign, or token, of the covenant between him and Abraham and his seed, and to whom the rite of circumcision and God's covenant extended. (See Gal. viii.)

Is circumcision now essential to salvation?

Is the belief of any doctrine essential to salvation?

Verses 6-11—Is experience of God and his dealings with men conclusive proof of the will of God in the matters which the experience covers?

Is thorough discussion in church courts a perfectly right way to arrive at the will of God on any matter?

Were those who taught that circumcision was essential to salvation, as well as being narrow, necessarily untrue men?

What is the difference between the "yoke" of the law and the "yoke" of Jesus? (v. 10.)

Verses 12-14—Read some of the wonders done through Paul and Barnabas among the Gentiles and say what bearing they had upon the dispute concerning circumcision?

Verses 15-21—Who was James, who next addressed the council?

James, the brother of Jesus, was the president of this council; it is probable that his address was of the nature of the judgment of the council on this question.

Verses 22-23—There seems to have been no formal motion passed by the council, but they appear to have reached an unanimous decision as outlined in the address of the president; say whether we are bound to take this decision as the voice of God.

In what particulars is the great wisdom of the council shown in settling this dispute?

Were each of the commandments given in verse 23 intended to be of lasting obligation, or were some of them only temporary?

From whom are Christians to get guidance on all matters in this day?

Verses 23-25—There never will be a time when disputes may not occur in the church and between individuals; how should they always be settled?

Did this trouble in the church help it or hurt it, and does God always overrule trouble, whoever may be the cause of it?
